

WELCOME

To Story Hunter Podcasts Newsletter!

Thank you for subscribing to our newsletter! I hope you've had a chance to listen to our first true crime series, "Where are you Mrs. Dick?" I've been obsessed with this story for a few years now and I am still following any leads that may tell us what ever happened to the elusive Evelyn Dick when she left prison. It's hard to believe someone could completely disappear without a trace and never be found or uncovered. But you know what they say, "It helps to have friends in high places," and I think Evelyn did.

Subsequently the government made sure her files were forever sealed.

Evelyn would have been 100 years old this year and I personally feel it's time for someone to give us some long overdue answers. I'm going to keep pressing and I'll keep subscribers up to date with any news.

And if you want to read more about Evelyn be sure to follow Sarah Farr's fabulous research on Facebook – The Evelyn Dick Files.

COMING SOON...

Our next true crime series is launching this Friday November 6!

For anyone who grew up in the Toronto area in the 1970's and 80's you'll probably remember the name Peter Demeter...

Introducing: Unrepentant Killer

Peter Demeter was a wealthy, Hungarian-Canadian property developer living in Mississauga with his beautiful wife and daughter. But his entire life changed when on a hot summer evening in July 1973, Peter found his wife bludgeoned to death in the garage of their suburban home. But within a month of Christine Demeter's murder, Peter was charged with hiring a hitman to kill his wife.

After one of the most bizarre and longest trials in Canadian history, Peter Demeter was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. A book was written, a movie was made and everyone forgot about Peter Demeter. But Mr. Demeter was not the kind of man who liked to be overlooked and he had some scores to settle. Even from behind bars, Peter Demeter was planning his revenge and no one, even those closest to him, were safe.

Introducing Unrepentant Killer: The Life and Crimes of Peter Demeter, our new true-crime podcast series that will tell you about a man who's evil knows no bounds. You'll hear about how he planned the brutal murder of his wife and how that was just the beginning of his murderous intentions. He is currently serving five life sentences and even at 87, the parole board deems him too dangerous for release.

Thank you for listening and I'd love to hear what you think? And if you have a true crime story you'd like us to cover, please let us know.

Cheers, Catherine
